

Air Force Services Teen Aviation Camp
United States Air Force Academy
Familiarization Exam

1. The USAFA mascot is the _____.
2. The USAFA Parachute team “The Wings of Blue” performs at about 50 air shows and open houses worldwide. Each year, _____ cadets complete five freefall jumps in the basic freefall parachuting course and earn the parachutist badge and rating. The Air Force Academy also has the only school in the United States authorized to allow students to perform unassisted freefall delays on their first jump, without any prior static line training.
3. Cadets must be between ____ and ____ years old on July 1 of the year of admission.
4. The Academy offers _____ academic majors and more than _____ courses are offered each year.
5. President _____ authorized women to attend all service academies; the first class with women entered in (month/year) _____ and graduated in (month/year)_____.
6. President _____ signed the bill authorizing the establishment of the United States Air Force Academy on (month/day/year) _____.
7. True/False Applicants must have good grades (generally ranked in at least the top 20 percent of their high school class), be active in athletic and non-athletic extracurricular activities, and be in good physical condition.
8. True/False Average cost to put one cadet through the four-year program is $282,562; the education portion is valued at about $123,000.
9. True/False Athletic fields cover 143 acres and include 18 football fields, 13 soccer fields, 10 flickerball fields, all encompassing, 2,000 people can participate in sporting events at the same time.
10. True/False Cadet Gym is five stories tall and contains three basketball arenas, two pools (one Olympic size), 19 racquetball courts, weight rooms, four tennis courts, and offices.
11. True/False Career Air Force officers provide most of the instruction, complemented by sister service officers, foreign officers, permanent civilian faculty, visiting professors from civilian institutions, and representatives from several federal government agencies. The Academy has reached an approximate steady state of 75% military and 25% civilian faculty members.
12. True/False Airmanship division programs are embodied in 19 courses that offer basic and advanced instruction in gliders, pilot indoctrination and parachuting.
13. True/False THE CADET HONOR CODE is, "We Will Not Lie, Steal Or Cheat, Nor Tolerate Among Us Anyone Who Does".

14. Mitchell Hall dining area covers 1.7 _____; staff serves the entire cadet wing at the same time, in and out in only 25 minutes.
- a. Square feet
 - b. Cubic feet
 - c. Acres
 - d. Tables
15. The first class of 207 graduated in:
- a. June 1969
 - b. May 1959
 - c. June 1959
 - d. June 1958
16. The Academy experience is designed to:
- a. Produce professional officers who have the knowledge, character, and motivation essential to leadership.
 - b. Offer an environment of trust and respect, where all people can achieve high productivity, are committed to organizational goals, and can reach their full potential.
 - c. Instill self-discipline and ethical accountability.
 - d. All of the above, in short, make character central to the development of tomorrow's Air Force leaders.
17. On July 11, 1955, the same year construction began, the first class of 306 men was sworn in at a temporary site at Lowry Air Force Base, Denver. Lt Gen Hubert R. Harmon, a key figure in the development of the Academy since 1949, was recalled from _____ to become the first superintendent.
- a. Korea
 - b. Retirement
 - c. Test Pilot School
 - d. Embassy duty
18. The USAFA is designed to allow cadets to grow _____, intellectually, physically, and morally/ethically.
- a. Militantly
 - b. Technically
 - c. Aerodynamically
 - d. Militarily
19. Throughout its history, one theme has been constant and persistent - a "_____." And, it's with that theme that the Air Force Academy looks forward to the future.
- a. Commitment to Excellence
 - b. Reach for the Peak
 - c. Duty, honor, country
 - d. Service before self
20. The goals of the athletic program are to enhance the physical conditioning of all cadets, to develop the physical skills necessary for _____, to teach _____ in a competitive environment and to build character. There are three subdivisions of the athletic program: intercollegiate, intramural and physical education.
- a. Victory & Teamwork
 - b. Endurance & Stamina
 - c. Officership & Leadership
 - d. Combat & Unity